The Lindisfarne Gospels, the most spectacular surviving manuscript from Anglo-Saxon England will go on display at the Laing Art Gallery in autumn 2022, on loan from the British Library.

Created in Lindisfarne on Holy Island, 687-722, the book represents the golden age of design and craftsmanship in Northumbria and has survived in almost perfect condition for over one thousand years.

St Cuthbert Cycling Challenge – £1,000

Support Tyne & Wear Archives & Museums Trustee, John Holmes to complete this Lindisfarne-inspired fundraising challenge. John will be cycling 540 miles, following the journey of St Cuthbert from Lindisfarne to the Laing Art Gallery, where the Lindisfarne Gospels, created in St Cuthbert's honour, will go on display this September.

This package includes:

- 15 exclusive Lindisfarne Gospels exhibition preview places.
- Commemorative exhibition poster.
- Logo placement and weblink on the Tyne & Wear Archives & Museums website and a thank you on social media.
- Sponsorship credit in e-communications to our 25,000-mailing list.
- Company branding on John's cycling shirt.
